Hon. T. R. Smith, grand master of the Ohio State grange, says the work of organization and re-organization is considerably more active this year than it has been for several years.
More granges have been organized and chartered since the first of January than were organized during the entire year of 1893. He said that he had already made arrangements for a grand Chautauqua assembly of Ohio grangers on Wednesday and Thursday, September 5th and 6th, at the Ohio State fair grounds, Columbus.

Many farmers and horticulturists at this season of the year observe the changes of the moon in order to determine the proper time, according to tradition, for the planting of various seeds. A well known professor of natural science was asked of this view of the moon's influence was not a superstition. "Until quite recently it was so regarded by scientific men," was the answer, "particularly the very ancient and almost universal notion that the moon's changes are coincident with sudden weather disturbances, the sprouting of vegetation and even the lapses of lunacy.
Now, however, men of science treat such traditions with more respect.
A few weeks ago, M. Frye, a learned French engineer, declared, after a long series of scientific observations, "that the incandescent and fluid matter under the earth's crust is found to act in concert with the moon." If this be true, other influences may be properly inferred."

In the case of the State of Ohio, on the Relation of the Board of Infirmary Directors of Wood Co., O., vs.
The Board of Infirmity Directors of Henry Co., O., in the supreme court, was decided Tuesday in favor of Henry county. This was the case known as the "pauper case," in which Wood county sought by mandamus to compel Henry county to take one of their paupers, claiming that the pauper was a resident of Henry county under the poor laws of the State. The attorneys for Henry county were Cahill & Donovan and J. P. Ragan, who managed the case from the start in a masterly manner.

The selections being reappointments, the rules were suspended and the appointments confirmed without dissent.

been the means of securing the State much money and property, and there is still much good work to be done by The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and nervous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they
